The parties have been diligently working and communicating to finalize a Joint Pre-Trial Order in this matter. As represented by the parties' prior request to extend this deadline, [ECF No. 162], the parties have been discussing a possible mediation to resolve the Plaintiff's claims without the need for a trial. The attempts to reach an agreement have been delayed by the intervening holidays, bankruptcy issues in several of both counsel's active cases, and a LVMPD representative's personal leave. The parties will work earnestly in attempting to reach an agreement and, if one is reached, to schedule a mediation within the additional time permitted by the Court in this stipulation. Should the parties be unable to reach an agreement, the parties will file the Joint Pretrial Order.

There is good cause to extend the deadline to submit a Joint Pretrial Order up until January 20, 2025 as stated above. The parties make this joint request as it is in the best interests of the parties and the Court.

DATED this 3rd day of December, 2024.
